

Helmet to Hardhats – Soldier Family Assistance Center, Fort Carson, Colorado

COLORADO SPRINGS, COLO. -- Governor Ritter spoke before a large crowd of officials and military personnel in front of what will be the new home for the Soldier Family Assistance Center located on Fort Carson. The new Soldier Family Assistance Center is being constructed by veterans who found the jobs through the H2H program. Governor Ritter told the audience "This is a vision that this country has had since 2003. It's important for us in this downturn and with the number of veterans we have to ensure they know about this program, and we fully support this (KKTV.COM.)

